

FY 2024 COMMUNITY-BASED APPROACHES TO PREVENT AND ADDRESS HATE CRIME

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

GRANTS.GOV:
JUNE 25, 2024

JUSTGRANTS:
JULY 2, 2024

Who May Apply:

Native American tribal organizations (other than federally recognized tribal governments); nonprofits having a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education; nonprofits that do not have a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education; public, private, and state-controlled institutions of higher education; community-based and civil rights organizations that are tribal, nonprofit, and academic

Why Apply:

Receive funding to support comprehensive community-based approaches to addressing hate crimes. These approaches should promote community awareness and preparedness, increase victim reporting, and improve responses to hate crimes.

Maximum per Award:

- Up to $400,000 for community-based organizations
- Up to $2,000,000 for national civil rights organizations

BJA encourages the following entities to apply:

- Agencies that have not previously received BJA funding.
- Convening or governing bodies that can apply on behalf of one or more entities.

Examples of strategies/activities that can be funded:

- Establish or enhance a task force or working group to address hate crimes.
- Conduct culturally responsive outreach, engagement, and education about hate incidents and hate crimes.
- Support several smaller organizations or communities through an intermediary program.
- Develop and deploy hate crime prevention and community healing activities and materials.
