FY 2024 JUSTICE AND MENTAL HEALTH COLLABORATION PROGRAM

Who May Apply:

State, city or township, county, special district, and Native American tribal governments (federally recognized), as well as institutions of higher education and mental health agencies designated by their state mental health authorities to provide services. Agencies with a different legal status (e.g., nonprofit or for-profit mental health agencies) are eligible to apply if are designated by the state mental health authority to provide services as a unit of the state or local government. All applications require a demonstrated partnership through a draft Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between a justice entity and a mental health partner.

Why Apply:

Receive funding to support cross-system collaboration to improve public safety responses to and outcomes for individuals with mental health disorders or co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders who come into contact with the criminal justice system. The program allows communities to choose a path to meet their own needs to improve response with very little restriction; there is a wide array of allowable activity.

Maximum per Award:

• $550,000 per award, including no-cost training and technical assistance

BJA encourages the following entities to apply:

- Agencies that have not previously received BJA funding.
- Convening or governing bodies that can apply on behalf of one or more entities.

Examples of strategies/ activities that can be funded:

- Clinical treatment and social services
- Case management
- Crisis stabilization units
- Mental health peer support specialists
- Court navigators/peer support advisors
- Build/expand existing justice and mental health collaboration programs
- Deflection/diversion treatment
- Creating/expanding mental health courts
- Cross-system training
