JUSTGRANTS:
JULY 15, 2024

Who May Apply:

Public- and State-controlled institutions of higher education, nonprofits having a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education, nonprofits that do not have a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education, private institutions of higher education, for-profit organizations other than small businesses, and small businesses.

Why Apply:

With this solicitation BJA seeks a training and technical assistance (TTA) provider with expertise in working with communities to improve access to integrated treatment for justice-involved individuals with co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders (MHSUDs).

Maximum per Award:

- Up to $7,000,000

BJA encourages the following entities to apply:

- Agencies that have not received BJA funding before.
- Convening or governing bodies that can apply on behalf of one or more entities.

Examples of strategies/ activities that can be funded:

- Support communities to promote access to integrated treatment for people with co-occurring MHSUDs during the post-arrest, pre-disposition phase of the criminal justice system.
- Design and deliver a demonstration project for up to 12 subaward sites to increase access to coordinated and integrated treatment services for people with co-occurring MHSUDs in the criminal justice system.
- Develop practical and replicable tools with direct applicability to the broader field to facilitate cross-system collaboration among the criminal justice, mental health, and substance use treatment systems.
- Support and design two training events for demonstration sites, bringing the cohort together around common goals, network sites together, and to address challenges.
- Guide and coach demonstration sites with planning and implementation activities.
