

FY25 PREVENTING VIOLENCE AGAINST LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND ENSURING OFFICER RESILIENCE AND SURVIVABILITY (VALOR) INITIATIVE

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

GRANTS.GOV:
FEBRUARY 5, 2026

JUSTGRANTS:
FEBRUARY 12, 2026

Who may apply:

Nonprofit organizations both with and without 501(c)(3) status, other than institutions of higher learning; and for-profit organizations.

Why Apply:

Receive funding to address existing and emerging national law enforcement safety and wellness issues facing policing through the design and delivery of direct training and assistance to officers and law enforcement agencies. Activities will support officers in strengthening their physical and mental safety and wellness to more effectively fight crime and protect and serve.

Maximum per award:

- One award for up to $6 million for the VALOR Officer Safety and Wellness Program.
- One award for up to $4,992,511 for the National Suicide Awareness for Law Enforcement Officers Program.

BJA encourages the following entities to apply

- Agencies that have not previously received BJA funding.
- Entities with expertise in training and providing direct support to law enforcement on safety and wellness issues.

Examples of strategies/ activities that can be funded:

- Development and delivery of a robust and comprehensive catalogue of in-person and virtual trainings.
- Provision of customized assistance to improve agencies' existing training, policies, and/or programs.
- Development and dissemination of critical information and recommendations for law enforcement to address officer suicide and strengthen officers' physical and mental safety and wellness.
