SECTION 1

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION
What is the Office of Justice Programs?

• The Office of Justice Programs (OJP) provides grant funding, training, research, and statistics to the criminal justice community.

• OJP is one of three grant-making components of the Department of Justice along with the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) and the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services.

BJA – Bureau of Justice Assistance

BJS – Bureau of Justice Statistics

NIJ – National Institute of Justice

OVC – Office for Victims of Crime

OJJDP – Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention

SMART – Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking
U.S. Department of Justice
Bureau of Justice Assistance

Mission: BJA’s mission is to provide leadership and services in grant administration and criminal justice policy development to support state, local, and tribal justice strategies to achieve safer communities. BJA works with communities, governments, and nonprofit organizations to reduce crime, recidivism, and unnecessary confinement, and promote a safe and fair criminal justice system.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW
FY 2024 Funding
Enhancing Correctional Practices to Protect Vulnerable People

Number of awards: 1

Maximum award amount: $2,500,000

Performance duration: 48 months
Program Goals

1. Support state, local, and tribal agencies to protect vulnerable people in their confinement facilities, and to reduce the use of overly punitive or restrictive measures to keep them safe.

2. Administer competitive microgrants of approximately $50,000 each.

3. Deliver training and technical assistance (TTA).
Vulnerable People

Under this program, vulnerable people include, but are not limited to, those with one or more physical disability, severe/persistent mental illness, or who are LGBTQ+, youthful inmates in adult facilities, blind, deaf, or non-English speaking.
Microgrants

• The successful applicant will enter a cooperative agreement with BJA.

• They will then administer subawards, or pass through funding, to entities operating confinement facilities to carry out parts of the Federal award.

• All recipients must adhere to the applicable law of their jurisdiction and the rules in the DOJ Grants Financial Guide.

• The cooperative agreement holder may impose additional financial and administrative requirements on the subawards.

• Eligible microgrant recipients are state, local, and tribal agencies working to protect vulnerable people in their confinement facilities.
Program Objectives

1. Develop and administer microgrants.
2. Provide TTA to recipient confinement facilities/agencies.
3. Provide TTA in response to requests from other confinement facilities/agencies.
4. Develop and deliver targeted, cost-effective, high-quality training and other resources.
Additional Information about Funding

• At least 50% of the total award (i.e., $1,250,000) must be awarded as microgrants.
• Because BJA wants to fund and support as many confinement facilities/agencies as possible, it is anticipated that each microgrant will not exceed $50,000.
Program Priorities

• Programs designed to advance equity and the remove barriers to access and opportunities.

• Applicant or subrecipient identifies as a population specific organization that serves communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, adversely affected by inequality, and disproportionately impacted by crime, violence, and victimization.
Examples of Innovations that can be Funded via Microgrants

Promoting positive changes in cultures in confinement facilities/agencies to reflect zero tolerance for abuse of any kind.

Enhancing screening and assessment, at intake and thereafter, using validated tools with a focus on identifying those who are at higher risk of being victimized, as well as those who are more likely to victimize others.

Increasing the use of screening and assessment information, at intake and thereafter, to guide housing assignments and placement in programming.

Reducing the use of restrictive housing to protect vulnerable people and/or to prevent individuals from victimizing others and investing resources in viable alternatives to this kind of housing.

Partnering with external victim advocates and victim service providers to support victims/survivors in confinement facilities.

Creating or expanding ways for people who are victimized in confinement facilities to confidentially or anonymously report incidents of abuse and educating them about these.
