

Effective Strategies to Investigate and Prosecute Labor Trafficking in the United States

San Antonio, Texas

February 5-7, 2020

315 S. Santa Rosa Avenue, San Antonio, TX 78207

Registration Deadline: January 24, 2020

This two and a half-day training, sponsored by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and AEquitas, funded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, is designed to enable participants to identify victims, and investigate and prosecute labor trafficking crimes. This training is open only to law enforcement investigators, prosecutors, and crime analysts.

Topics Include:

- ➔ Prevalence and venues of labor trafficking
- ➔ Trauma-informed interviewing
- ➔ Proactive investigation and prosecution strategies
- ➔ Use of continued presence and T/U visas
- ➔ Language access and working with interpreters

Registration Details:

- Offered at no cost to participant
- Participants are responsible for their own food, travel, lodging, and incidentals
 - On-site check-in will begin at 8:00am on Wednesday, February 5, 2020

Register Here

If you have not attended an IACP event before, you will need to create an account.

If you have any questions, please contact Quauhtli Olivieri at Olivieri@theiacp.org or at (703) 647-6825