Program Description

Overview

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights, increases access to justice, supports crime victims, protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

This initiative seeks to implement transdisciplinary crisis response training to educate and prepare law enforcement and correctional officers so that they are equipped to appropriately interact with people who have behavioral health conditions or disabilities in the course of completing their job responsibilities

Statutory Authority

This program is authorized by 34 USC 10651; Pub. L. No. 116-260, 134 Stat 1182, 1259.

Specific Information

This program seeks applications for grant funds from state, local, and tribal law enforcement and correctional entities to:

1. Plan, develop, and deploy a best practice training program for officers that includes their community.
2. Develop a strategy for deploying officers trained in crisis response during times of crisis.
3. Evaluate, improve, and sustain community engagement and a best practice program.

Awarded sites will be encouraged to develop programs that incorporate BJA's Crisis Response and Intervention Training Program curriculum and additional best practices that are designed to increase understanding of behavioral health conditions and disabilities, develop empathy, navigate community resources, and increase de-escalation skills within the applicant organization and among staff, and include the community. For information about the curriculum—including a brief description and the curriculum matrix—visit the Academic Training web page.

All applicants should be aware that under federal law, OJP may not award grant funds to procure or obtain any equipment, system, or service that uses “covered telecommunications equipment or services” as a substantial or essential component of any system or as critical technology as part of any system. In general, with limited exceptions, “covered telecommunications equipment or services” includes telecommunications and video surveillance equipment or services produced by a foreign entity that is specifically designated by statute, or designated by the federal government pursuant to statute.

Applicants also should be aware that, in accordance with DOJ and OJP policy, and with few exceptions, OJP will prohibit use of award funds for unmanned aircraft systems (UAS), absent advance submission of specific documentation of protections in place for privacy, civil liberties, and public safety and mitigation of cybersecurity risks. In addition, OJP will bar use of award funds for the purchase or use of UAS made by certain foreign entities as designated by DOJ.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Goal

To support crisis response training for state, local, and tribal law enforcement and correctional entities that will ensure organizational planning, strategically deploy those who have been trained, and ensure sustained best practices.

Objectives

BJA is seeking applicants that will:

- Perform a problem analysis, in collaboration with local stakeholders and agency leadership, using relevant data. Applicants will use this analysis to understand the training, partnership, resource, and deployment needs of the applicant entity and its community.
- Develop a comprehensive training plan that anticipates future deployment models which will determine the training needs of the applicant entity.
- Create, design, and implement a training program. BJA encourages using BJA's Crisis Response and Intervention Training Program curriculum which includes best practices from Memphis Model Crisis Intervention Teams training, Disability Response, Co-Responder, Behavioral Health Mobile Response, Case Management, and other response models. A matrix of the modules can be found here.
- Seek and deploy other best practice training for officers to educate them on behavioral health conditions and disabilities.
- Define and track process measures as well as short-term and long-term program outcome measures. Program measures may include increased knowledge, skills, improved responses, and safer encounters.

- Employ data-driven practices (e.g., report program performance to stakeholders) to improve program implementation.
- Build long-term sustainment through a train-the-trainer component.
- Determine who are the best qualified officers to train and recruit them.
- Improve officer and citizen safety through increased community collaboration, communication, and deployment strategies.
- Build positive community relations and trust through increased outreach to citizens, families, advocates, and stakeholders.
- Enhance officer knowledge of mental health, behavioral health, reentry and wrap around services, disability resources, and diversion opportunities through the delivery of crisis response training which includes service partners and associated community agencies as co-trainers.
- Engage BJA's National Law Enforcement Mental Health Learning Site Program as part of an ongoing training strategy.
- As needed, provide information to and actively collaborate with BJA and BJA's partners on program process and outcome evaluation efforts.

Deliverables

Applicants must submit applications that propose both planning process and implementation phases for the training program for law enforcement or correctional officers.

1. The planning phase is up to 12 months long to design the training program within the applicant entity in coordination with community partners. At the conclusion of the planning phase, grantees will submit their implementation plan to BJA's training and technical assistance (TTA) provider. Specifically, grantees will:
  - Develop a coordinated and documented training approach and deployment strategy with BJA's designated TTA provider, as needed.
  - Outline a plan for obtaining the necessary support to administrate and sustain the training and continue the proposed collaboration program following the conclusion of federal support.
2. Implement, evaluate, track, and sustain the training program: Deliver crisis response training (preferably BJA's Collaborative Crisis Response curriculum) as outlined in the implementation plan. Grantees can expect to begin implementation once the planning phase is complete and the implementation plan has been reviewed and accepted by BJA's TTA provider.
3. Deliverables should correspond to and incorporate the objectives described above.
4. Provide BJA with regular ongoing data pertaining to the number of officers trained, activities, and the outcome of the trainings.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that demonstrate the results of the work completed, as discussed under the Application and Submission Information section.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly emphasizes the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development in criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. For additional information and resources on evidence-based programs or practices, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities

OJP may conduct or support an evaluation of the programs and activities funded under this solicitation. For additional information, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide section entitled "Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities."

Priority Areas

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights, increases access to justice, supports crime victims, protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community. In FY 2021, OJP will give priority consideration in award decisions to applications that demonstrate ways in which their projects will advance one or more of these areas.

To receive priority consideration for advancing one or more of the Department's priorities, the applicant must provide a sufficient narrative explanation as an attachment, that specifies how the project will advance the promotion of civil rights, access to justice, support to crime victims, protecting the public from crime and evolving threats, or building trust between law enforcement and the community.

In addition, OJP will give priority consideration, if applicable, to applicants that demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent-poverty counties.

To receive priority consideration under the poverty priority, the applicant must provide information to demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent poverty counties. For purposes of this priority consideration, the term "high-poverty area" means any census tract with a poverty rate of at least 20 percent as measured by the 2013–2017 5-year data series available from the American Community Survey of the Census Bureau (applicants may search by census tract at <https://www.census.gov/acs/www/data/data-tables-and-tools/narrative-profiles/2017/>) and the term "persistent poverty counties" means any county that has had 20 percent or more of its population living in poverty over the past 30 years, as measured by the 1990 and 2000 decennial censuses and the most recent Small Area Income and Poverty Estimates (applicants may search by county at <https://www.census.gov/data/tables/time-series/dec/census-poverty.html> and at <https://www.census.gov/programs-surveys/saipe.html>).

Priority consideration is one of many factors that OJP considers in making funding decisions and is not a guarantee of an award.

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for the Bureau of Justice Assistance include geographic diversity, strategic priorities (specifically including, but not limited to, those mentioned above relating to priority areas), available funding, past performance, plan for sustaining the program after the grant has ended and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (Web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet basic minimum requirements, will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the stated review criteria above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all solicitations for funding under OJP programs:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant that has one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant, may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider any such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may take into account not only peer review ratings and BJA's recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.
