Program Description

Overview

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights, increases access to justice, supports crime victims, protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

The BJA Internet of Things National Training and Technical Assistance Program is designed to support law enforcement officers, public safety officers, and prosecutors by providing training and technical assistance (TTA) to state, local, territorial, and tribal law enforcement officials; intelligence analysts; prosecutors; judges; fusion center staff; and other criminal justice entities who prevent, investigate, and respond to crimes committed using wireless devices. These crimes are committed using networked computers, handheld devices, and internet technology; some examples include various kinds of theft (financial, identify, etc.), cyber stalking, hijacking accounts on social networking websites, infrastructure intrusions, and hacking (i.e., reconfiguring or reprogramming a system to function in ways not approved by the owner, administrator, or designer).

Statutory Authority

Any awards from this solicitation will be made under the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, Pub. L. No. 116-260. 134 Stat. 1182. 1258.

Specific Information

The Internet of Things (IoT) has been defined as a system of interrelated, internet-connected objects that are able to collect and transfer data over a wireless network without human intervention. The personal or business possibilities are endless, but when applying this to criminal acts, identifying evidence and the prosecution of criminal use adds a totally different dimension to the phrase Internet of Things. This program will identify up to four TTA providers to identify these types of crimes and provide training on how investigations and prosecution should be handled, as well as on how communities can be made aware of their vulnerability to fall victim to these types of crimes. A special effort will be made to ensure these trainings are available to law enforcement agencies, no matter the size or the location. This effort will specifically include prosecutors and judges to ensure they are aware of these types of crimes and how other states, counties, and jurisdictions are addressing IoT crimes and trends.

Currently, no database exists on the capabilities of IoT devices for training on options and best practices for handling of evidence to meet judicial standards and privacy concerns. A priority for the successful applicants is to develop a database on IoT device capabilities and to build and execute training modules for law enforcement. Delivery of TTA must address the ethical and statutory requirements for collection of digital evidence, preparation of case materials for testimony, and proper formatting and evidence authentication for introduction in court.

The successful applicants are also expected to work with BJA partners to make appropriate resources available for federal agencies to enhance outcomes in these cases. Applicants are expected to demonstrate effective collaboration and coordination with other organizations that conduct TTA related to the IoT. These collaborations require working with professional organizations, federal agencies, educational institutions, and the private sector to develop tools that assist in investigations of these types of crimes. Applicants that do not currently have such partnerships in place should clearly and comprehensively describe how they will be developed so that the work supported under this program extends current national TTA capacity and results in the creation and implementation of a national, integrated, and collaborative TTA strategy which targets these specific criminal areas. In addition, the successful applicants will work closely with BJA to identify and apply resources to address other emerging threats and evolving criminal behavior to include effective prevention methods for internet-based crimes.

Funding under this solicitation is specifically to provide TTA to state, local, territorial, tribal, and law enforcement agencies, but should also include prosecutors, probation/parole, judges, and community awareness. Funds may not be used to provide TTA to federal agencies. However, to ensure the most cost-effective programs are delivered to the field, attendance by federal officials in training classes is allowed at no charge if vacancies exist that cannot be filled by state, local, tribal, and territorial participants.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Because this is a new national TTA program, applicants must clearly articulate how they plan to develop and implement a comprehensive TTA program with regard to the IoT. Applicants must explain how they will provide training and technical assistance to small and underserved agencies in rural and remote jurisdictions across the United States and how this will be accomplished in partnership with federal agencies, other educational institutions, professional organizations, and the private sector, and how the proposed work will be used to develop a database on Internet of Things device capabilities. During the 18-month program period, applicants will receive oversight and guidance from BJA, be required to achieve the following goals and objectives, and produce the following deliverables, including but not limited to:

Goals

- Provide high-quality, cost-effective training to the field with regard to systems of interrelated, internet-connected objects that are able to collect and transfer data over a wireless network without human intervention.
- Provide, under oversight and guidance from BJA, high-quality, cost-effective technical assistance to state, local, territorial, and tribal jurisdictions with regard to the IoT.
- Provide training to state, local, territorial, and tribal law enforcement agencies so they can provide awareness education to their communities with regard to the IoT to reduce victimization.

Objectives

- Increase the knowledge of criminal justice practitioners through in-person and online training. This would include the development of needed training materials, and build and execute training modules for law enforcement
- Make available educational materials about the IoT that can be used by jurisdictions for their communities. This should be made available in both written and electronic forms.
- Increase the ability of criminal justice agencies to solve problems and/or modify policies or practices related to preventing, investigating, and responding to the IoT and calls for service.
- Communicate regularly with BJA to assess the impact of the TTA services.

Deliverables

- · Develop both online and classroom-style trainings addressing issues related to the IoT.
- Develop a database on IoT device capabilities.
- Develop instructional aides such as PowerPoint presentations, issue papers, policy and practice briefs, and handbooks which will assist agencies or jurisdictions in examining and improving their own policies and practices related to this subject area. Although the primary target audience for these materials is criminal justice system stakeholders, the products developed will, ideally, be adaptable for use by the general public to build community members' awareness of prevention methods utilized by state and local agencies.
- Provide content and manage these items for the BJA-supported Law Enforcement Cyber Resource Center (LECC), hosted by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) in conjunction with the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF).
- Customized technical assistance (offsite) that is designed to address the specific need(s) of each requesting jurisdiction or agency. Applicants should outline the elements of an effective technical assistance process, including the specific steps associated with selecting jurisdictions or agencies to receive assistance.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that demonstrate the results of the work completed, as discussed under the Application and Submission Information section.

See OJP Grant Application Resource Guide for additional information.

· Public and state-controlled institutions of higher education

Other:

Applicants must be institutions of higher learning that provide training in computer forensics and digital investigation and possess experience in providing training and technical assistance (TTA) on a national level to state, local, and tribal law enforcement officials; intelligence analysts; prosecutors; judges; staff who work in fusion centers; and other criminal justice entities who prevent, investigate, and respond to crimes committed through the use of wireless devices and the internet. In addition, applicants are required to have the capacity to deliver TTA nationally to include remote locations and underserved communities throughout the United States and its territories, as needed.

To advance Executive Order 13929 Safe Policing for Safe Communities, as of October 28, 2020, the Attorney General determined that all state, local, and university or college law enforcement agencies must be certified by an approved independent credentialing body or have started the certification process to be allocated FY 2021 DOJ discretionary grant funding, as either a recipient or a subrecipient. For detailed information on this new certification requirement, please visit https://cops.usdoj.gov/SafePolicingEO.

Application Review Information

Review Criteria

a. Merit Review Criteria

Applications that meet basic minimum requirements will be evaluated by peer reviewers. Applications will be evaluated on how the proposed project/program addresses the following criteria:

- Statement of the Problem/Description of the Issue (20%) evaluate the applicant's understanding of the program/issue to be addressed.
- 2. Project Design and Implementation (40%) evaluate the adequacy of the proposal, including the goals, objectives, timelines, milestones, and deliverables.
- 3. Capabilities and Competencies (20%) evaluate administrative and technical capacity of the applicant to successfully accomplish the goals and objectives.
- 4. Plan for Collecting the Data Required for this Solicitation's Performance Measures (5%) evaluate the applicant's understanding of the performance data reporting requirements and the plan for collecting the required data.
- 5. Budget (15%) evaluate for completeness, cost effectiveness, and allowability (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities).

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for BJA include geographic diversity, strategic priorities, available funding, past performance, ability to work with other entities in this field, cooperation with federal agencies, partnerships with institutions of higher learning, ability to provide TTA services both in person and online on a nationwide basis, ability to serve all agencies no matter size or location, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (webbased form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet basic minimum requirements will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the stated review criteria above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all solicitations for funding under OJP programs:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant that has one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider any such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may take into account not only peer review ratings and BJA's recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.

Federal Award Administration Information
