Agenda—Page Three

1:00 p.m. – 1:25 p.m.

“Voices From the Field” Success Story: Information Sharing Between Justice and Health Communities

*Sarah Davis, MPH, Program Coordinator, Pima County Behavioral Health
Mr. Came, Facilitator*

- This session will highlight the use of the Global toolkit as a foundation to implement a low-cost, open source solution enabling the sharing of jail and behavioral health data in Pima County, Arizona.

1:25 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

Identified Priority: Support for Enhanced Access to Summary Nationwide Criminal History Records

Mr. Steven Correll, GESC member, Executive Director and representative from Nlets—The International Justice and Public Safety Network (Nlets), Facilitator

- Building on foundational Global technical recommendations and Nlets’ information sharing solutions, including its Criminal History Information Exchange Format (CHIEF), an effort has been proposed to pursue enhanced nationwide access to summary criminal history records. Nlets Executive Director Correll and GAC Vice Chairman Milstead will outline the genesis of this proposal, phased next steps and timelines, and anticipated outcomes, which directly support the Administration’s prioritization of both public and officer safety.

1:50 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.

Membership Roundtable 2: Law Enforcement Community of Interest

Facilitated by GAC Vice Chairman Milstead

2:15 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.
